

MEMBERS OF THE SAMARITAN CENTER OF PUGET SOUND MEDIATION TEAM

Sue Freeborn

Additional bio information <http://www.samaritanps.org/therapists/freeborn.php>

- 20 years experience in the mediation field
- Expertise in case settlement involving, families, businesses, churches, personal injury and organizations experiencing conflict
- 23 years as an attorney participating in over thirty mediations
- Licensed mental health counselor, complementing the mediation process with knowledge of human dynamics and the implementation of law
- Trained and certified as a mediator through the American Arbitration Association
- BS Willamette University, law degree from University of Puget Sound

Marty Hawkins

Additional bio information <http://www.samaritanps.org/therapists/hawkins.php>

- Served as neutral (mediator and arbitrator) in resolving over 150 disputes since 2000
- Practitioner of interest-based problem solving and negotiations
- Group process facilitator since 1985 and educator (teacher and administrator) since 1969
- Mediating family, employment, church and education disputes
- Conducting school discipline hearings
- Facilitating group discussions and problem solving
- Certified Mediator, Pierce County Center for Dispute Resolution,
- M.Ed. University of Washington, B.A. Political Science

Michael Rogers

Additional bio information <http://www.samaritanps.org/therapists/rogers.php>

- Mediator, Dispute Resolution Center of Snohomish and Island Counties (also serving King County) nationally recognized standard for mediation
 - Facilitating reconciliation and interest-based solutions among conflicted families, parenting plans, groups, workplaces, organizational leadership, clergy and congregations since 1989
 - Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (WA) – over 20,000 hours clinical experience promoting enduring communication
 - M.Div., M.A., Fuller Seminary, A.B., Brown University
-

Gary Steeves

Additional bio information <http://www.samaritanps.org/therapists/steeves.php>

- Certified Mediator, Washington Mediation Association member
 - Corporate, small business and church consultant, facilitator, mediator, educator
 - Licensed Mental Health Counselor specializing in systems theory
 - Certified facilitator with Active Parenting of Children and Teens
 - American Association of Pastoral Counselors member able, at the parties request, to integrate spirituality in the areas of concern, including conflict and negotiations.
 - Certified Mediator, Pierce County Center for Dispute Resolution. Bachelor in Sacred Theology,(STB), Angelicum University Master in Ed., University of Puget Sound
-