

The Northwest Region of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors announces its 2017 Annual Conference

The theme of our 2017 NW Region Annual Conference is “The Future of Spiritually Integrated Healthcare: Engaging Diversity and Allied Professions”.

Jill L. Snodgrass, Ph.D., a millennial Assistant Professor of Pastoral Counseling at Loyola University Maryland will lead us in exploring diversity, ways of intervening and recognizing the emerging realities of pastoral counseling and integrated health care systems on October 13-14, 2017 at Seattle University. Continuing education hours are being requested for 6 CE's from NBCC. Registration will be available soon on the aapc.org website.

The American Association of Pastoral Counselors membership is open to all who support the mission to bring healing, hope and wholeness to individuals, families and communities by expanding and equipping spiritually ground and psychological informed care, counseling and psychotherapy. The Northwest Region includes Alaska, Idaho, Oregon and Washington in the United States and Alberta and British Columbia in Canada.
